Dear [Redacted]

STAT

We will miss you! Your professional experience, your wise counsel, and your reasonable and balanced perspective have kept the machinery of Senate-Agency relations functioning smoothly and efficiently. There were times when there was great potential for misunderstanding -- but you were always there to help both sides focus on the issue and avoid problems.

Since my Chairmanship, you have been particularly valuable by working closely with the Committee staff as we slowly turned the Committee back to the forms of oversight originally contemplated in our Charter. Your guidance, patience, and spirit of cooperation have guaranteed our success in this effort. You can finish your task with the knowledge that you have done a great and lasting service to the Central Intelligence Agency -- and the Nation.

Sincerely,

Dave Durenberger
Chairman
